

Form W-4 (2015)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2015 expires February 16, 2016. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you cannot claim exemption from withholding if your income exceeds $1,050 and includes more than $350 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Exceptions. An employee may be able to claim exemption from withholding even if the employee is a dependent, if the employee:

- Is age 65 or older,
- Is blind, or
- Will claim adjustments to income; tax credits; or itemized deductions, on his or her tax return.

The exceptions do not apply to supplemental wages greater than $1,000,000.

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2015. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Future developments. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted at www.irs.gov/w4.

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person who claims no withholding allowances; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

Tea Area School District 41-5 Staff Network Acceptable Use Policy

Staff members using the school district's network are responsible for using this technology appropriately and in an ethical manner. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary actions if deemed necessary.

The use of technology must be in support of education and research. Therefore, computer and network resource use must be consistent with the academic goals of the district.

The staff member will be able to:

- Access the school's electronic equipment.
- Use the internet for educational purposes.
- Utilize the file server for data storage.
- Print in moderation for classroom use only.
- Use external storage devices if virus scanned prior to use.
- Access a personal K12 Email account and webpage provided by the state of South Dakota.
- Check out school equipment through the libraries or with prior Network Administrator approval.

The staff member will be prohibited from:

- Bypassing the internet filter to gain access to blocked websites unless temporarily granted access by the Network Administrator.
- Transmitting, receiving, viewing, or housing obscene materials.
- Allowing students to use their teacher workstation while teacher/staff is logged on to the computer.
- Allowing other individuals to use their username and password to access network resources.
- Utilizing school equipment for personal financial gain (selling on E-bay, stock brokering etc)
- Bringing programs or games from home or other sources.
- Installing non-approved or inappropriately licensed software on school computers.
- Using tools or programs capable of disrupting the network.
- Accessing real time audio or video streaming unless temporarily granted access from the Network Administrator.
- Vandalizing equipment or attempting malicious harm to destroy data.
- Downloading non-educational files from the internet.
- Using P2P (Peer to Peer) services.
- Chat or instant message services on school equipment.
- Housing MP3 files or executables on the server.
- Bringing outside electronic devices to access the school's network.
- Sending emails to all members of the K12 Data Center global address book.
- Using school computers to place phone calls.
- Printing materials for personal use on the school district printers.

The staff member's internet use can be tracked and is monitored on a regular basis. Files on any of the Tea Area School District computers or data servers are not private and therefore, subject to inspection.

Misconduct:

The building and/or network administrator are responsible for applying disciplinary actions when the Acceptable Use Policy has been violated.

If deemed necessary, law enforcement agencies will be involved.

STAFF NETWORK USER AGREEMENT

Access to network services is given to staff members who agree to act in a considerate and responsible manner.

Access to Tea Area School District computers is a privilege, not a right.

After reading the Network Acceptable Use Policy, please complete this form to indicate agreement with the terms and conditions outlined. The signature of the staff member is mandatory before access may be granted to the network. This document, which incorporates the Tea Area School District Network Acceptable Use Policy, reflects the entire agreement and understanding of all parties.

As a user of the Tea Area School District computer network, I have read and hereby agree to comply with the Tea Area School District Acceptable Use Policy.
